Wrexham Symphony Orchestra is one of the most progressive orchestras in North Wales and the North West England area. Founded in 1969, it has grown to its present day membership of over fifty players, and regularly attracts professional conductors and outstanding soloists.

From January 1997 WSO became resident at the prestigious NEWI William Aston Hall in Wrexham for rehearsal purposes. In 2004, WSO was inaugurated Orchestra in Residence at NEWI and then Glyndŵr University in 2008.

More recently, the Orchestra has embarked, with financial backing from COBALZ Ltd, on a project to perform all of Mahler's nine symphonies. We are now two thirds of the way through this Mahler cycle, having already played all but one of his first seven symphonies.

Sponsorship & Advertising

WSO is eager to accept sponsorship from local companies or individuals. WSO is primarily self-funding through member subscriptions and concert ticket sales. However, additional income could, for example, cover some of our general running costs such as rehearsal and concert venue hire, conductors' fees and promotional advertising, or help fund the cost of music that is not readily available from public music library services.

Sponsorship of the Orchestra can take many forms, such as placing an advertisement in future concert programmes, sponsoring a work to be performed in a forthcoming concert - or a series of works, as COBALZ has - sponsoring our website, or by making a cash donation to the Orchestra. If you are interested in supporting the Orchestra in any of those ways, please approach us at a concert or email us at wrexhamso@gmail.com.
